PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Culture is a powerful thing.

Cultural practice is a thing that binds a community.

Last Friday night, we farewelled our Year 12 class of 2017 at Parklands. It would be a fair thing to say that this annual event is a part of the fabric of the Year 12 experience at Mudgee High School. It is one of those "rites of passage" that is an important part of the senior school journey and, for a great many of our students, the thirteen year journey that is public schooling in the Mudgee district.

It is a night of finery; of "dressing to the nines" and looking one's best. It is a night when we celebrate the community spirit of the cohort with the presentation of cheques to the worthy beneficiaries of their fundraising efforts.

It is a night shared with family and friends on the very last occasion that these students will be together as a group before they head off in an array of new directions.

It is a night to say farewell.

It was a great night, the service at Parklands this year was excellent, no mean feat given the size of the audience, and the students looked spectacular.

In short, it's a cultural practice of which we can all be proud and one none of us here at Mudgee High is looking to change anytime soon.

Next Monday evening, the final P&C meeting for 2017 will be held in the school library. It will begin at 7pm.

P&C meetings are a great place to find out what has been happening at school ask questions about your school and make suggestions about the school's direction. With this last point in mind, on Monday I plan to share with the P&C a little pertinent data related to the school and seek some parent and community thoughts on the school's direction over the next three years. More particularly, I want to talk to the P&C about its observations related to matters of teaching and learning at Mudgee High.

If you can fit the date into your calendar, I look forward to seeing you there.

Until next week...
