Principal's message

Running

Mudgee's Running Festival has come and gone – last Sunday to be precise – but it is worth recognising some of our own who did well on the day.

In the 21 km half-marathon event, Year 12's James Pegg turned in a respectable 1:56:19 time for the course, meaning he averaged around 10.8 kmh. He was bettered by PDHPE's Mrs Gallen, who turned in a 1:54:15 time for the same course, giving her an average of 11 kmh for the course.

In the 10 km event, Year 7's Gabi Cini turned in a 1:02:57, earning her third place in her category. Year 11's Jake Brakel turned in a 0:56:13 time in his category, earning him a fourth place. The absolute flash in this event was Year 9's Riley Taylor, who turned in an impressive 00:38:11, which earned him second place in his category.

Many of the marshals on the day were students from our Year 12, earning coin for their Rainbow charity cause.

There is no truth in the rumour that Mr Rosolen is still out there, yet to finish.

The future looks good

On Wednesday 23 August, Year 11's captain hopefuls gave their candidacy speeches before an audience that included their Year Adviser, their class teachers, the Year 11 Deputy Principal and Principal.

Each spoke well from their prepared notes.

Each was required to also undertake a pre-recorded interview where they were asked to respond to four questions that explored a number of things. They were asked about their respective understanding of the school's three universals; what it is to be safe, respectful and responsible. They were quizzed on their personal leadership attributes, what the captaincy would look like should they be elected, and what service to others means.

It would be fair to say that each acquitted themselves well.

The biggest issue now facing the electorate is just who to choose. With such a strong field, the choice will be a tough one. It is a strong field that augurs well for 2023.

Wear it Purple – Friday 26 August

Wear it Purple Day is twelve years old this Friday. It began at Burwood Girls High School and came about because of a student desire to show some solidarity with her LGBTQIA+ friends, young people often the subject of cruel taunts from other less accepting individuals.

Wear it Purple Day has certainly grown from those humble beginnings. It is now a global movement.

Figures show that some seventy-five percent of LGBTQIA+ Australian young people continue to experience bullying based on their identity. LGBTQIA+ youth are at statistically higher risk of poorer physical and mental health outcomes in life.

Wear it Purple is a small act, but it sends a powerful message. It makes clear that there is no place for homophobia and transphobia in a community that wishes everyone to feel safe, valued and respected regardless their background or identity.

Students are encouraged to wear something purple on Friday; a jumper, shirt, hat, scarf, etc.. Students are not obliged to do so nor is there some gold coin collection. Wearing something purple on Friday is simply an act of solidarity with some of our potentially more marginalised companions on this journey of life.

Until next week...

RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS

A random act of kindness is a non-premeditated, unexpected action designed to offer kindness towards the outside world. Look for ways you can bring joy into the life of others around you. You could:

- ✦ Give someone your seat on the bus.
- ✦ Smile at someone who looks sad.
- ✦ Do chores at home.
- ✦ Be on time.

VALID Science 10

Dear Year 10 Parent or Carer

The Validation of Assessment for Learning & Individual Development (VALID) test for Year 10 students will be held between Monday 29 August and Friday 9 September 2022. The test takes approximately 75 minutes. The VALID Science 10 test is an interactive, multimedia test completed entirely on a computer.

VALID Science 10 contains multiple choice, short response and extended response tasks that are grouped around real-world issues, including scientific investigations. It is a diagnostic test, with tasks framed around Stage 5 outcomes and essential content in the NSW Science Years 7–10 Syllabus (2018). Students will be tested on their:

- knowledge and understanding of science
- understanding and skills in the process of scientific investigation
- ability to evaluate evidence, make judgements and think critically
- ability to access information and communicate scientific ideas.

Students also complete a survey about their opinions, attitudes, and values related to science.

VALID Science 10 contains audio, so each student will be provided suitable headphones that connect to the provided device. If your child has a disability that requires special consideration or has been educated in English for less than one year, please contact Mudgee High (6372 1533) to discuss special provisions or exemption from the test.

Results of the test will be available during Term 4, 2022.

Information about each student is treated confidentially and held securely to ensure that the right to privacy of all students is maintained. A personalised electronic report describing the knowledge and skills demonstrated by your child in the test will be available from their school. There will also be information about how your child's results compare with overall performance of all students in the test across NSW. The principal of your child's school can provide you with more details about the VALID program if you require additional information.

Yours sincerely

CAPA faculty news

In true CAPA style, the Creative and Performing Arts department has been sharing the love of our disciplines with our students. Some stimulating special events have been and will be occurring this term.

Week 3 of Term 3, the Cudgegong Learning Community (CLC) showcased a range of artworks from Years K to 11 at the Mudgee Arts Precinct. This was an outstanding opportunity for our students to display their practical successes in visual arts. The exhibition was well attended over the course of the week. Many visual arts classes were escorted down to the gallery to view the CLC exhibition, as well as the current Anna-Wili Highfield Mating Dance exhibit. This exhibition features an installation of life-sized broilgas completed in brass wire and cotton rag paper. The delicate and intricate birds are suspended and frozen mid-ballet in a gesture of call, response and mimicry. Anna-Wili has also offered to run some artmaking workshops with some of our high potential and gifted artists in coming weeks.

On 30 August, John Morrison and Jacki Cooper will be bringing the 'Make It Swing' workshops to Mudgee High, working with selected music students and classes. These outstanding practitioners are regular performers at festivals and jazz clubs around the country. They have been visiting Mudgee High School for many years. Each visit, these performers tailor their program to our students' needs, enriching our music programs with their extensive expertise.

Our Higher School Certificate classes are wrapping up their Bodies of Work and musical pieces, ready for marking. Some outstanding work is coming together. We wish them success as we count down these final days.

For those keen beans, new or old performers, band practice occurs on Tuesday afternoons. Please see Mr. Holleman to express your interest.

Link expressions of interest - closed

Expressions of interest for the 2023 Link Program are now closed.

Thank you to those who have shown interest and submitted your forms.

A selection panel will meet to review the applications. Students will be notified in person the outcomes of that meeting during Week 7.

Parents will have the opportunity to speak with Mrs McNeill and Sonia Hayton on Thursday 8 September at the Years 8, 9 and 10 parent/teacher evening.

English faculty news

Week 6 is Book Week and the English faculty plan to celebrate in a variety of ways. For students, there is:

- The Door Competition
- The Face Challenge
- Mystery Books
- Roll Call Trivia.

We have a special judge who is coming to look at the doors and choose some winners. Can you guess who it is?

Book Face Challenge

Have a book with an interesting cover? Why not be creative with it?

The English faculty is inviting you to participate in the Book Face Challenge.

If you accept the challenge, you need to find a book cover and align it to match the view in front of the camera (see the examples provided) before taking a photo.

Once you have taken the shot, email it as an attachment to katie.eslick@det.nsw.edu.au with 'Book Face Challenge Entry' as the subject. Be sure to include the names of all the people who helped to create the image!

Entries close Week 6, Monday 22 August, 2022.

Each Roll Call group has the opportunity to participate in the Book Week Door Design Competition.

All they need to do is decorate their Roll Call room door with a design that fits this year's Book Week theme, 'Dreaming with eyes open'.

The winning door design will be announced during the Week 6 assembly.

Some work from our students

Year Eleven Extension has just submitted their research multimodal tasks. They have created some of the most amazing texts. They had to choose a text and then show its transformation into at least one other modern text. They were able to identify how they wished to present the information that they uncovered about their text.

Chevelle McCrohon

Chevelle created three paintings, a triptych, based upon The Taming of the Shrew. The first one depicts the Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton version. The middle portrays Ten Things I Hate About You. The final one is of a ballet version of The Taming of the Shrew.

Ashlyn Richardson

Ashlyn explored the development of a manga text, Death Note, into anime and live action. She created all the visuals. In addition, Ashlyn explained the changes between each version and how much she despised the Netflix one because of the poor characterisation.

Safara Niven

Safara created a website called Shake the Tree. On the site, she compared numerous versions of Romeo and Juliet. Safara delved into the depths of these works and has mastered how to set up a website. Her work is very impressive!

Emilie Martin

Emilie explored Lady Macbeth and how her motivations have changed over time in a variety of versions. This was enacted in front of the class ( a partial clip of verse below). Another Head Teacher had walked into the classroom during this performance and was moved to tears.

DOCTOR: I, Doctor James Windsor, do hereby swear by the Almighty God to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, or so help me God. (pause)

(The spotlight changes to a cold white, the DOCTOR relaxes in his chair.)

My relationship with the late Lady Macbeth was strictly professional, the first time we met was in unfortunate circumstances, after her young child passed, and her husband, the Lord Macbeth requested my services to diagnose her Ladyship, and offer treatment for her fragile mental state at the time. I diagnosed her with hysteria, a common affliction among women especially after they experience the death of a child. Her particular case was ongoing, you see her Ladyship had a severe imbalance in the humours which prevented her from fulfilling her womanly duties, she tried and tried again to deliver a child, failing continuously. Under my treatment she managed to successfully deliver, but the child died from fever only a few summers after its birth. She fell into despair, refusing to eat, she could not fathom the ultimate truth of the matter. She was not fit for motherhood. After a period of treatment she eventually recovered, and I was dismissed from the Macbeth household, although I still operated within Cawdor and served as a sort of... medical advisor when required. It was through this contact that I was called upon again, when her Ladyship fell back into despair, and began her sleepwalking.

Lily Nicholson

Lily ventured into Anne of Green Gables to Anne with an E. She showed the development of ideas and impacts by creating a ribbon connecting them and then attaching butterflies at pertinent points. (Picture right)

Harriet Etherington

Harriet produced her own website based upon Pygmalion and My Fair Lady. On her site she discusses the varying changes throughout time. She also includes from where the original idea sprang. (Picture below)

Wishing you all a wonderful Book Week.

The English Faculty.

Pygmalion had seen them, spending their lives in wickedness, and, offended by the failings that nature gave the female heart, he lived as a bachelor, without wife or partner for his bed.

PYGMALION (1912) ACT II - GEORGE BERNARD SHAW

HIGGINS [dogmatically, lifting himself on his hands to the level of the piano, and sitting on it with a bounce] Well, I haven't. I find that the moment I let a woman make friends with me, she becomes jealous, exacting, suspicious, and a damned nuisance. I find that the moment I let myself make friends with a woman, I become selfish and tyrannical. Women upset everything. When you let them into your life, you find that the woman is driving at one thing and you're driving at another.
