Course Break up

Photography is a very practical course.

Students will study photography through a range of fields:

Wet photography; Video; Digital Imaging; and an individual / collaborative project.

Why study Photography?

It is hands-on and fun!

Students learn to see and question the world from unusual perspectives.

Why study Photography?

Part of the joy of studying Photography is that whilst you explore the critical and historical aspects of the course, you also practice it!
